

INSITUTE OF AMERICAN INDIAN ARTS

and

LEECH LAKE TRIBAL COLLEGE

ARTICULATION AGREEMENT

This articulation agreement is between the Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA) in Santa Fe, New Mexico and Leech Lake Tribal College, Cass Lake, MN for the purpose of stating the conditions under which students seeking transfer of admission to IAIA will receive credit for successful completion of courses and/or programs offered by Leech Lake Tribal College.

AGREEMENT RECITAL

Whereas, success with the Institute of American Indian Arts depends upon several factors, including, artistic and academic potential, the motivation to develop the potential, sound work habits, and for the transfer student, appropriate placement with a given curriculum at IAIA.

Whereas, the current catalog of Leech Lake Tribal College has been reviewed and up to date, to determine the extent to which students who have completed the Associate of Arts: Arts and Humanities program of Study: in Indigenous Leadership may transfer into the (BA) Indigenous Liberal Studies program at IAIA.

Therefore, the parties hereby agree as follows:

REVIEW OF APPLICANT'S ACADEMIC RECORD AND PORTFOLIO

The academic record and the portfolio of each applicant to IAIA who has Leech Lake Tribal College will be evaluated to determine their potential for success in the BA program at IAIA. The outcome of this evaluation will determine the number of transfer credits and the student's status within the given BA curriculum.

REVIEW GUIDLINES

The following will be used for the review process under this Articulation Agreement:

1. Students must follow the application procedures as outlined in the most current IAIA catalog.
2. Students are subject to the standards of admissions as determined by IAIA and its Enrollment and Admissions Office.
3. Students will be required to submit a portfolio that outlines the departmental requirements. The student's portfolio will be reviewed by select faculty and staff of IAIA to determine acceptance.
4. Students who successfully complete the Associate of Arts degree or, students who prefer to transfer before receiving their degree. Only grades of "C" or better will be acceptable as transferable credits. IAIA will accept up to 61 transfer credits.

General information for students seeking admission to IAIA.

1. Leech Lake Tribal College will assist the Institute of American Indian Arts in the distribution of updated degree and transfer materials to alumni and current students. Please refer to the relevant catalog of the IAIA for admission require application procedures, and for general descriptions of the program curriculum requirements.
2. Leech Lake Tribal College will provide the opportunity for the Institute of American Indian Arts' recruitment department to meet with Leech Lake Tribal College students on an ongoing basis. An IAIA recruitment representative will be responsible for scheduling a Leech Lake Tribal College campus visit at least once per academic year. Leech Lake Tribal College will be responsible for advertising and advising potential transfer students prior to each visit.
3. It is recommended that a faculty member of the Arts & Humanities programs advise each degree seeking student of the transfer conditions to the IAIA Bachelor of Arts degree programs.
4. All admissions requirements and fees must be received and in the applicant's file prior to the admission's review. The applicants will be notified of their admissions status via phone; email and regular mail delivery. A BA degree requirement form will be included for the applicant's review and signature. It is the applicant's responsibility for the return of the form to the admissions office for possible future review.

Further review of this Articulation Agreement may be necessary as changes occur within the curriculum at either institution. At the request of the Institute of American Indian Arts or Leech Lake Tribal College a review of this document will be conducted by both parties.
